

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE., NOV. 3, 1886.

The grand jury of Franklin County reported sixty-three indictments at its last session.

The President has named Thurday, November 23d, as a day of thanksgiving throughout the country.

The internal revenue collections for the Louisville district last month amounted to $331,504.59.

GENERAL CASSIUS M. CLAY will be a Republican candidate for Governor at the next State election.

One hundred miles of railroad have been constructed in this State since last January and the good work is still going on.

JUDGE JACKSON, of the Louisville Circuit Court, sentenced seven prisoners the other day to the penitentiary, to serve various terms of imprisonment.

For a violation of the oleomargarine law which went into effect Monday, manufacturers will be fined from $1,000 to $2,000, wholesale dealers from $500 to $1,000, and retail dealers from $50 to $500.

The Treasury Department has a ruling of great importance to National banks. The decision is that the bonds to secure circulation must be interest-bearing bonds—those called for redemption can not be used.

The late James M. Ferran, of Louisville, gave in his property last year for taxation at $75,000. It now transpires that the estate is worth $150,000, more than six times as much as it was assessed at. The case presents a strong argument in favor of the new revenue law which will compel the rich to give in their property at a fair cash value.

The Government receipts during the first four months of the present fiscal year, ended to-day, were $127,844,377, being $14,168,891 in excess of the receipts during the corresponding period of last year. The expenditures during the same period of 1880 were $82,314,053, being $11,918,351 less than the expenditures during the same period of last year.

The law taxing oleomargarine went into effect Monday. "It is very strict and licenses will be issued for six months, or from November 1st to May 1st. Manufacturers will pay $600, while wholesale dealers, $240, and retailers $24. A tax of two cents a pound will be collected on all oleomargarine now in the district, and the same also on all manufactured in the district hereafter. Under the new law all oleomargarine must be stamped with special stamps bearing the name of the manufacturer. It must also be sold in original packages, or in packages containing regular stamps of the department."

Mr. HUNTINGTON has had many vexatious obstacles cast in his way concerning the proposed bridge across the Ohio River that the work must now be delayed until next season. The most tiresome obstruction is by the river men, who appear to imagine that their avocation is important to the trade of the city as it was forty years ago. Why, one of the oldest of the fraternity has declared that in a short time the only steamers plying on the Ohio will be tow boats. At the present time there is more business transacted on the banks of the Miami canal than at the river landing—Covington Commonwealth.

The following from the Bourbon News contains some good advice to parties who contemplate writing anything for the newspapers: "We call the attention of 'Vox populi Vox dei,' 'Russia,' 'Justice,' 'Old Subsider,' 'Constant Reader,' and all other anonymous correspondents throughout the land, that an unwritten newspaper law exists everywhere, prohibiting the publication of all anonymous communications. It has been published millions of times since the first newspapers were published, that all authors' names and addresses must invariably accompany their articles—not necessarily for publication, but as an act of good faith. Still, there are men who have contributed bushels of documents to the waste basket, who insist on sending in anonymous articles."

The Verdict Unanimous.

W. D. Sutl, Drygoods, Rippon, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles and was cured of rheumatism of ten years standing." Ahram Ham, druggist, Belvidere, Ill., affidavit: "The following medicine has ever handled in my twenty years' experience is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the liver, kidneys, etc. Only half a dollar a bottle at J. C. Pecor & Co., and S. P. Campbell & Co's, Aberdeen, O.

NORTHWESTERN WHEAT MOVEMENTS.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 3.—Receipts yesterday were 302 bushels, while 257 carats and 257 carats in Duluth. These large receipts with large accumulations in country elevators tend to prevent a present rise. The large receipts made large offerings of same of wheat on Chicago, but the milling industry has not yet been able to use them up as yet. Prices ranged about the same as Saturday. There was more inquiry for future, and buyers seemed to be more confident that the bottom had been reached. Four shipments: Milwaukee road, 1,000 bushels; Chicago, 8,375 bushels; St. Louis, 4,285; Winona, 2,150; Chicago, 2,125; Mankato, 149; Northern Pacific, 124; total, 39,744.

Election in Georgia.

ATLANTA, Ga., Nov. 3.—The election in Georgia was for members of congress only, the state offices having been chosen October 2d.

To those who want the opposition to the democratic nomination Prohibition was not a political issue in this state.

The Knights of Labor do not extend beyond the state line, and they have not been seen by some parties. Prices ranged about the same as Saturday. There was more inquiry for future, and buyers seemed to be more confident that the bottom had been reached. Four shipments: Milwaukee road, 1,000 bushels; Chicago, 8,375 bushels;

St. Louis, 4,285; Winona, 2,150; Chicago, 2,125; Mankato, 149; Northern Pacific, 124; total, 39,744.

Having decided to quit the Dry Goods business, I have rented my store to Alter, Hall & Co., in possession of main room to be given next January. My stock of goods, therefore, is MURKIN'S, and a greater portion of this stock is unbroken, having just received a full line of curtains and hangings.

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
Proprietors.

WEDNESDAY EVE, NOV. 3, 1896.

INDICATIONS: For Kentucky, fair weather; slightly cooler.

WHITE SOAP 5 cents, at Calhoun's.

Two of the moonshiners confined in the Louisville jail were married the other day.

Miss NELLIE L. BURNES and Mr. Daniel Vantine, of Chester, will be married at 8 o'clock this evening.

THE school children will look long forward to the 25th of this month. It will be their next holiday.

REUMATISM and similar diseases, caused by a low state of the system, are cured by using Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

THE Bellevue (Ky.) Water and Fuel Gas Light Company has been organized with a capital stock of $250,000.

WANTED.—20,000 live turkeys. Will pay the highest price. F. H. TRAXX & Co.

THE Vienna Chair Factory, run by Mason, Ford & Co., in the Frankfort penitentiary, can't supply the demand for the goods it is turning out.

A SLIGHT breeze is very often the forerunner of serious lung trouble. A few doses of Balsam of Tolu and Glycerine of Tar will remedy the difficulty.

THE trial of J. M. Keller for killing Wm. Landrum in Cynthiana a few months ago resulted in a verdict of involuntary manslaughter. The penalty was fixed at a fine of $300.

A MAN was run over and killed by a train on the Kentucky Central the other day near Falmouth. His remains were terribly mangled. An envelope found in his pocket was addressed to Alex Robbie, McPherson, Kansas.

MARION TOLLS, of Clifton, has left at this office a sweet potato of the Bermuda variety that weighs ten pounds and is twenty-five inches in circumference at its largest part. It got away with any potato we have seen this season.

A FINE constitution may be broken and ruined by simple neglect. Many bodily ills result from habitual constipation. There is no medicine equal to Ayer's Pills to correct this evil, and restore the system to natural, regular and healthy action.

THE Lexington Transcript is the authority for the statement that a pumpkin, which was perfectly sound outside, was opened the other day and found to be full of sprouting seeds and shoots of vines with green leaves growing on them.

THE railroad contractors have several squads of workmen engaged in grading the road between this city and the mouth of Lawrence Creek. The work is progressing satisfactorily, and the contractors are putting in their best efforts this weather.

THE citizens should give Haucke's band a big audience at their concert on Thursday night. This is one of the best musical organizations in the State, and our community should show their appreciation by giving them a crowded house. Tickets 50 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.

EVERY day brings fresh testimony of the superiority of Ballenger's Diamond spectacles over any others. A lady who had not been able, with any others, to see the eye of a needle for years, sees perfectly with the Diamond. Others, after a few weeks, are able to discontinue the use of spectacles entirely. For sale by Ballenger.

THE Citizens' Coal Company has just received a fresh supply of coal. The following named gentlemen are the authorized agents of the company, and all orders left with them will receive prompt attention: James Redmond, Jr., West Second street; Hugh Shannon, corner Fourth and Plum; W. H. Wallingford, Fifth ward, opposite Hall's plow works, oddm. J. HAMILTON, Agent.

A COMMITTEE of Italians waited upon Kelly & Wilson, praying for work last Saturday, but this contracting firm preferred to employ home labor, and refused them. They learned their price, which was very low, but told the Italians that they did not desire to pay that much, in order to get rid of them. It is a blessing to the community. They would have made Rome howl in this vicinity about the first pay day.—Portsmouth Times.

The Coming Concert.

Among the vocal selections to be rendered at the concert Thursday night by Haucke's band is the solo, "Adelaide," by Beethoven. It will be sung by Miss Letitia Wheeler for the first time in this city. The programme is an attractive one throughout. The tickets are going off with a rush, and those who want choice seats should secure them without delay.

IN DOUBT.

TOO CLOSE FOR COMFORT.

The Nominee Mercilessly Knifed In His Home.

The Wood-Chopper's Boobie and the "Kids" and Other Disaffected Democrats do Dirty Work.

But Judge Wall has Probably Won by a Small Majority—Official Count Necessary to Decide the Question.

LATEST NEWS FROM ALL POINTS

Yesterday's contest was one of the fiercest ever fought in this county. The fight began with the opening of the polls in early morning, and the "battle of the ballots" was stubbornly contested at every point until the wind-up at 7 o'clock in the evening. The Republicans were thoroughly organized, and, being backed by an unlimited supply of "boobie," and reinforced by most of the "kids" and some other disaffected Democrats, made a desperate effort to down the gallant nominee of the "untutored" in his home county. The "wood-chopper" centered his forces right here in Mason County, and made his fight here. Men who are acquainted with his methods know what that means. Under these circumstances and with some of their own members openly working against them, the Democracy of Mason fought one of the hardest fights yesterday that was ever fought in the county. The majority is not what we at first expected, but against such overwhelming odds, the Democracy of Mason or of any other county could not do more. One traitor in the camp can do more injury to the cause than a dozen enemies in an open, fair and square fight. The truth of this may be seen in the result of yesterday's contest.

Unofficial returns from this county give the following majorities:

For Wall—
Mayville No. 2.....	34
Dixie.....	10
Minerva.....	40
Germantown.....	10
Fairfield.....	21
Mayslick.....	40
Orangeburg.....	40
Union.....	30
Lewisburg.....	132
Total.....	489

Wall's majority in the county is 206.

The following is the latest from the other counties:

BRACKEN.

Wilson & McCormack telegraphs this morning from Augusta that Bracken had given Wall but 134 majority.

ROBERTON.

A telephone message from Mt. Olivet places Wall's majority in Robertson at only 145.

LEWIS.

Judge Thomas carried Lewis by 580 majority.

GREENUP.

Democratic majority in Greenup over 100, according to latest from Paynter & Puthoff.

BOYD.

A dispatch from T. D. Marcus says Boyd gave Thomas less than 50 majority.

NICHOLAS.

A special from Green Kellar at 10 o'clock this morning says Nicholas gave Judge Wall 471 majority.

LAURENCE.

Major Butchett telegraphed this morning that Wall had 100 majority in Lawrence.

BATH.

A special from Bath at 9 o'clock this morning says that Wall's majority is 130 in that county.

FLEMING.

Nothing has been heard from Fleming since last night. Wall claims 100 majority.

CARTER.

A dispatch from Carter late last night says Thomas' majority will not be over 200 in that county.

ROWAN, JOHNSON AND MARTIN.

Nothing has been heard from these counties, and at the time we go to press it is not known who will represent the Ninth district in the Fifteenth Congress. Some Republicans concede Wall's election by 100 majority.

Latest From Other Points.

[Special to DAILY BULLETIN.]

CINCINNATI, Ohio, November 3.—10, a.m.—Republicans carry Ohio by 15,000.

Elect 14 Congressmen, Democrat elect 7 Congressmen. Frank Hurd defeated.

New York City and State Democratic, Republicans gaining one Congressman.

Democrats gain one Congressman in Missouri, but lose two in Virginia.

Democrats claim next United States Senator from Indiana.

Elect Governor in Connecticut.

Almost carry Minnesota. Gain one Congressman in Nebraska.

Republicans gain several Congressmen, and next Congress will probably be Democratic by twenty majority.

Heavy vote against Carlisle, but it is thought he will pull through.

AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION.

At Flemingsburg, Allen Harrison quarreled with his brother, LeRoy, and struck him on the head, inflicting what is considered a fatal wound.

THE Lexington Street Railway Company has been sued for $2,500 by Miss Maria Larvin, who was seriously injured during the fair some weeks ago.

A. T. McDonald, of Flemingsburg, has assigned to Harry Andrews. Assets, small; liabilities, $3,000. He was the largest dry goods man in that county.

THE Portsmouth Times says L. G. Wilam, a bridge contractor on the railroad, was robbed the other evening of $115 while being ferried across the river in that vicinity. The thief was J. H. Brown, who has served a term in the Ohio and Kentucky penitentiaries.

Mrs. Jessie Orton will so n a year at McAuley's theater in Louisville in a "Drawing room recital" under the patronage of the leading society ladies and gentlemen of that city. The tickets are being sold privately, and a large and fashionable audience is already insured.

—Exchange.

THE Sun of Winchester, Ky., says:

"Dr. H. M. Marsh, who for the last two years has practiced his profession in Winchester, has sold his business, good will, etc., to Dr. S. M. Cooper, of Chatauaqua, Tennessee."

Dr. Marsh has made an enviable reputation as a gentleman and a skillful and attentive physician. The people are loath to give him up. He will begin practice at Mayville about December 1st. May good success attend him!"

Without Reference to Earthquakes.

The certainty of the success of Southern enterprises shown by the regularly which has characterized the grand monthly drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery—the 198th of which events will take place on Tuesday, November 9

1886—without any reference to earthquakes or other interferences. Generals G. T. Beauregard, of La., and Jubal A.

Early, of Va., will scatter some $255,500

all about the earth. For any information apply to M. A. Dauphin, New Orleans, La. Do not forget the day.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Charlotte Boyer and Mrs. D. R.

Purdum have returned to their home in Ripley, after a visit to their brother, J. W. Boyer, of Chester.

Two Shooting Affairs.

While the election was in progress at Washington yesterday, Jim Williams, colored, voted the Democratic ticket. He was immediately set upon and badly beaten up by the colored Republicans.

During the melee, Williams got hold of a pistol and shot Walker Reid, one of his assailants, inflicting a flesh wound in one of his legs.

After Williams was gotten out of the crowd by his friends, he was assaulted the second time and was knocked senseless by a negro whose name could not be learned. Williams was unconscious for some time. It was not learned how severe his wounds are. The parties concerned in the outrage should be hunted down and given the severest penalty the law provides for such cases.

The negroes of Mayslick attempted to mob one of their number last night about 10 o'clock for voting the Democratic ticket yesterday. Deputy Sheriff Chan, Jefferson attempted to quell the disturbance and was shot in the arm by a negro named Charley Fields. Fields escaped and is still at large. Mr. Jefferson's wounds are painful but not serious.

An Industrious Old Lady.

Mrs. Sophia Brown, of Winsted,

County, though 97 years old, reads the daily newspaper with avidity, knits, sews, threads her own needles, makes her own caps, assists in the housework, and grumbles because she is not permitted to do more.

Live Turkeys.

We will pay cash for 20,000 choice turkeys. MASON PRODUCE CO., Sutton, St.

Citizens' Gas Light Company.

From November 1st, gas will be 75 cents per 1,000 feet until further notice.

134if CITIZEN'S GAS LIGHT CO.

Notice.

From and after the 1st of November 1886 the price of gas will be 75 cents per 1,000 cubic feet. ROBERT COCHRAN, President, Mayville Gas Co.

Aanthracite Coal.

William Wormell has just received a superior quality of Chestnut Anthracite coal, suitable for base-burner stoves. Orders left at office, corner Wall and Third streets, will receive prompt attention.

THE Executive Committee of the District Sunday School Institute will please meet at W. S. Frank's office Friday evening November 5th at 7 o'clock.

A full attendance is desired.

SCARED BY A BIG GORILLA

A MUSEUM MONSTER AT LARGE IN LONG ISLAND WOODS.

The Residents About Setauket Afraid to Go Out at Night Because the Gorilla Infests the Neighborhood—He Kills Sheep and Has Fun With Everybody.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The villagers of Setauket, L. I., believe there is a gorilla lurking in the woods where their homes are situated, fearing for their lives in consequence. The farmers go armed to their work in the fields and do not venture out alone after dark. Their wives would as soon defy an army of mice as leave the shelter of their houses, and the children are afraid to go to pasture for the cows, and in some cases have to be escorted to and from school. The nutting season is at its height, but the children dare not venture near the woods. The colored natives, many of whom go nightly to Stony Brook, two miles away, but always return home in groups armed with axes and pitchforks.

Sehah Strong is a farmer of Setauket, who has a fine flock of Southdown sheep. Two weeks ago the pick of the flock was found mangled and dead, and it was found to have been torn to pieces by the gorilla. A man, he argued, might have broken the animal's back and left the footprint in the soft ground, but he could not have torn the flesh about the throat and left the claw marks. He finally concluded that a man had started a fire and that later a beast had finished it.

Two nights afterward Jacob Satterlee, who lives about a mile from Farmer Strong, heard a fearful swishing in his chicken coop, and ran out to find a large gorilla and went forth. The children had quailed down, but on the floor beneath the root were three fat hen whose bodies had been literally torn from their bodies. There was nothing to indicate who or what had been guilty of that carnage.

The "only bather" as the unknown trumper came to be called, remained veiled in mystery for several days. A few evenings since, however, Farmer Jim Addis met with an expert who has satisfied him that he was not the true character of the intruder. This is what occurred, as told by himself to the reporter:

"I'd been up in the hills all day plowing, and about dusk I put the team to the wagon and started home. My wife was with me and her little son, too, and I was driving east. We came down through the lane to the highway, and I stopped and closed up the bars after me. Then I climbed back into my wagon and lay down. I heard a noise and looked up to see the tail end of the edge of the swamp with the high nose. Billy picked up his ears and took a scot of the tail. He did not seem to like it, and the mare was up something pecky, too. I naturally knew what was wrong, and I thought the thing I knew was passing within forty feet of a big one of some kind. It was just in the edge of the bush and stood on its hind feet, graping the limb of a sapling with one hand. It made a move towards us, and I and my wife got out of the wagon and ran for our lives. The mare was frightened, too, and the IR out of that hole like they was colts. I wasn't exactly scared, but I looked around and saw the brute watchin' in the middle of the road. I thought I would let the team get out as quick as I was able. I had two good, square looks at the animal. He stood high off onto the knees and then they were quite full. His arms were the same, and he had his hands in his pockets. His hair was half over all, and I didn't see no tail."

This was the story which connected with the inhuman butchery of sheep and chickens, frightened the quiet village folk. Then the names began to fall, when the animal had been seen, and a party of around fifteen men was discovered who alleged that a few nights previous a Southern American trader had sought shelter in the harbor of Port Jersey, three miles down the coast, and that they had a couple of good signs that the animal had escaped, and was followed by the fishermen; that the animal had escaped while exercising on the deck, and that only one of them had been recaptured. Nobody could be found to corroborate yesterday either in Setauket or Port Jersey, except that the fishermen who had told the story.

There are many of the villagers of Setauket who have been exercising their imaginations to increase the sensation. A dark name Jerry, a blacksmith, failed to identify the animal in the head. He has parlayed it into a colored colony by a tale that on Thursday, while hunting for coon in Nasauac Swamp, he came across footprints the mud which measured twelve inches in length. He showed them to so many, however, that he got a tremendous gorilla, at least nine feet in height, who stood up to his knees in water, and pounched his chest with both fists. Jerry Woodcock discharged his gun at the beast, and, after a long struggle, it was shot dead by his son, Henry. So far, a farmer, told a grocery crowd at Stony Brook, the other night that the gorilla had stood in the middle of the road and refused to allow him to pass. The animal had said, "shapin' in chest, please," a position which he assumed below log. Farmer "Hi" Culin's son and a schoolboy named Sherman Hawkins each told their playfellow that they had met the gorilla in the woods. Two strange men passed through Setauket on Wednesday, who they were looking for a gorilla, which had escaped from a Brighton Beach aquarium.

Asking for a State law.

DANVILLE, Va., Nov. 8.—An important meeting of the chamber of commerce was held yesterday evening. Among other questions discussed was the question of carrying concealed weapons. While a committee was organized to draft a suitable bill, the legislature, at its next session, will be asked to amend the state law, making the penalty imposed for carrying weapons concealed about the person, a fine of $100, which will then make the corporation law conform to that of the state. This move is in accordance with the wishes of the citizens of the town.

A Priest Condemns the Knights.

MONROVIA, Nov. 8.—Father Stevens, presiding in New Haven Diocese church, spoke against the revised rule of the Knights of Labor, which were arranged to suit the Catholic clergy, for the purpose of saving the members of the order from the charge that they were members of the organization to which it adhered, as he considered the whole matter a trap for workingmen.

ONLY SLEEPING.

Commander R. F. Chandler Comes to Life and Asleeps Frequently.
New York, Nov. 8.—The Herald states that Commander R. F. Chandler, United States navy, retired, who was supposed to have died on Sunday from the effects of a paralytic shock sustained on the previous Wednesday, did not die, but was sleeping. The doctor who had prepared the body for burial, and was about to make the necessary incisions for the purpose of embalming when the supposed corpse sat up with open eyes and exclaimed, "What's this? What's this?"

The undertaker dropped his instruments and nearly fainted. "I want something to eat," was the next exclamation of the old officer. As soon as those around him could get him to sit down, food, and a drink of beer was provided. The captain ate heartily and that night he slept soundly. His physician began to hope for his complete recovery, but yesterday afternoon the patient suffered another shock of paralysis, and was unable to rise. He was then carried to his room and apparently death, but the physician and relatives believe that he has finally passed away.

Quoted at the Chicago Stock Exchange.

CHICAGO, Nov. 8.—The stockyards were almost deserted, work being generally suspended on account of election. The meeting of the union butchers was not profitable for any number of reasons, the action taken being an expression of a desire to keep the men employed, the eighteen branches of work in the packing houses to take charge of the strike. It was decided to adhere to the demand for a maintenance of the eight-hour day. It was agreed that men should not work more than ten hours a day.

A man, he argued, might have broken the animal's back and left the footprint in the soft ground, but he could not have torn the flesh about the throat and left the claw marks.

He finally concluded that a man had started a fire and that later a beast had finished it.
